White in winter, green in summer
KRANJSKA GORA

Kranjska Gora is located in the far north-west of Slovenia, right on the border with Austria and Italy, surrounded by the Karawanks Mountains on one side and the Julian Alps on the other.

An idyllic village surrounded by forests, hiking and cycling trails, ski slopes, and a rich cultural heritage.

Its altitude (810m), mountain air and many days of sunshine have made it a unique climatic health resort since antiquity. The picturesque town has a reputation as a complete sports and recreation centre, offering countless opportunities for outdoor leisure.

Everything else is taken care of by the Hit Alpeina Kranjska Gora hotel chain.

There is one of the most beautiful cycle tracks in Slovenia going through Kranjska Gora. Partly built on a former railway line, the route runs from Jesenice to the border with Italy and beyond, without any major ascents or descents. For the more endurance-oriented, you can cycle to the Vršič Pass, Slovenia's highest road pass. The area around Kranjska Gora is a hiker's paradise. Discover the many well-maintained and marked hiking trails, suitable for both recreational hikes as well as serious mountain tours. Hiking poles can be rented, and cycling and hiking passes can be purchased at our hotels.
